Rome, Auguſt 15.

PRINCE Ruſpoli is ſet out from hence for Venice, in order, as 'tis ſaid, to make ſome Propoſitions for amicably adjuſting the Differences which have ariſen between this Court and that Republick, on Account of the Patriarchate of Aquileja. The tempeſtuous Weather we have lately had in this Country, has done a deal of Miſchief to all the Fruits of the Earth in general.

Genoa, Aug. 17. This Government having been informed, that three Barbary Corſairs were cruizing off the Iſland of Gorgone, in the Sea of Corſica, they immediately ordered three armed Galliots, which lay ready in Port, to go in queſt of them. Seven Dutch Ships have arrived here within theſe few Days; and as we were informed that one of them had touched on the Coaſt of Africa, where a contagious Diſtemper ſtill reigns, the Government have obliged her to perform an exact Quarantine.

Petersbourg, Aug. 18. A few Days ago her Imperial Majeſty went to viſit their Imperial Highneſſes the Grand Duke and Grand Dutcheſs, at their Houſe at Oranienbaum, where a moſt magnificent Entertainment was provided; to which the principal Lords and Ladies of the Court, and all the Foreign Miniſters were invited. Count Raſomowſky, the new Atteman or General of the Coſſacks, has obtained the Rank of Field Marſhal of her Imperial Majeſty's Armies.

Leghorn, Aug. 20. Yeſterday the new Men of War put to Sea for the Levant, having on board ſeveral Knights of the Order of St. Stephen, who have been waiting here for ſome Time paſt to go on this Expedition. We have received Advice, that the Republick of Lucca having been informed that the Duke of Modena was arrived at Caſtelnovo, upon the Frontiers of that Republick, they had ſent M. Sardini, to compliment him thereupon in their Name.

Vienna, Aug. 22. We are informed by Letters from Bohemia, that their Imperial Majeſties arrived at Neuhoff on the 17th Inſtant; and the next Morning all the Troops which are encamped near that Place, under the Command of Prince Lobkowitz, were drawn out in order of Battle, and performed all their Military Evolutions in the Preſence of their Imperial Majeſties, who afterwards withdrew to a magnificent Tent purpoſely erected for them, when all the Troops, both Horſe and Foot, paſſed in Review before them; after which they returned to Neuhoff. On the 19th their Imperial Majeſties went again to the Camp, and ſaw all the Troops drawn out as before, and having ſeen them perform ſeveral Exerciſes, Evolutions and Firings, they returned again to Neuhoff, extremely pleaſed with the Appearance and Behaviour of thoſe Troops. On the 20th the Court ſet out from Neuhoff to viſit the other Camps in Bohemia; and 'tis ſaid they will return to Schonbrun by the 26th or 27th at fartheſt, in order to celebrate the Empreſs Dowager's Birth-Day.

Warſaw, Aug. 22. Laſt Thurſday being the Anniverſary of their Poliſh Majeſties Day of Marriage, the ſame was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; on this Occaſion their Majeſties received the Compliments of the principal Nobility of the Kingdom; after which his Majeſty diſpoſed of ſeveral Important Poſts, amongſt which the young Count de Bruhl was appointed Staroſtie of this City, and was accordingly inſtalled in that High Office by the Prince of Czartorinſky, Palatin of Ruſſia. The Senatus Conſilium opens on the 25th Inſtant, ſo that their Majeſties Departure for Dreſden will not take Place ſo ſoon as was expected. So many Robberies and Murders are committed in this City almoſt every Night, that they have been obliged to reinforce the Garriſon, and to double the Guards and Patroles. They write from Podolia, that the Heyducks, notwithſtanding their late Defeat, had appeared again in that Province; that a large Body of them had plundered the Inhabitants of the Town of Latyczew, and that they had retired to the Mountains with their Booty, before the Arrival of a Detachment of the Crown Army, who was ordered to the Relief of the Town.

Copenhagen, Aug. 25. The King has cauſed an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, by which the Portugueſe Jews are allowed the ſame Freedom of Commerce throughout his Dominions, as is allowed to thoſe of all other Nations. His Majeſty, in Conſideration of the great Loſs which many of the Inhabitants of this Kingdom have ſuffered ſuffered by the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, has ordered that they ſhall be excuſed, for the preſent, from paying one eighth Part of their yearly Taxes.

Vienna, Aug. 26. This Morning the Empreſs Queen paſſed by this City for Schonbrun, from the Tour ſhe had made with the Emperor to view the Camps in Bohemia and Moravia; but his Imperial Majeſty propoſes ſtaying in Bohemia about a Fortnight longer.

Stockholm, Aug. 28. The King continues his Reſidence at Carsberg, and enjoys a pretty good State of Health. The Princeſs, Spouſe of the Prince Succeſſor, went Abroad on Sunday laſt for the firſt Time ſince her Lying-in. The ſame Day their Royal Highneſſes, accompanied by Prince Guſtavus, went from Drotningholm to Exholm, where they propoſe ſpending the Remainder of the fine Seaſon. The King has appointed Count Gyllenbourg to be Preſident of the Mines; but we do not hear that his Majeſty has as yet diſpoſed of the Office of Grand Marſhal of the Court, in the room of Baron Taube, who died on the 19th Inſtant. We learn by our laſt Letters from Finland, that all Things there remained in perfect Tranquillity, the Troops of both Nations continuing very quiet in their reſpective Quarters.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29. Yeſterday General Numſen, who was appointed ſome Time ſince Governor of this City, took Poſſeſſion of that Employment, and was complimented thereupon by all the Principal Officers of this Garriſon. Count Reventlau, Preſident of the Council of Altena, arrived here on the 27th in the Evening. Laſt Saturday Night a Fire broke out in the little Town of Preſtoe, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that in about two Hours Time both Sides of the Town were burnt to the Ground, which has reduced the greateſt Part of the Inhabitants to extreme Want.

Dreſden, Aug. 29. The Princeſs Royal advances happily in her Pregnancy. The Departure of Prince Xavier for the Court of France, will take Place the Beginning of next Month. We have received Advice by our laſt Letters from Luſatia, that a prodigious Swarm of Locuſts had ſettled in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and had done an infinite deal of Damage.

Berlin, Sept. 1. This Morning the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and ſeveral General Officers, and Lords of the Court, ſet out on a Tour to Sileſia. His Majeſty propoſes taking his Route by Cuſtrin, where he intends ſtaying only one Day, in order to review the Regiments of Dragoons of Rothenbourg, Bonin, and Katt, who are aſſembled for that Purpoſe in the Neighbourhood of that Place. Their Royal Highneſſes the Princes Henry and Ferdinand, Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau, Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, who were alſo to accompany his Majeſty in this Tour, ſet out Yeſterday. The Margrave and Margravine of Bareith are ſtill here, but propoſe ſetting out on their Return Home on Saturday next.

Hanover, Sept. 4. We are informed by Letters from the Gohrde, that his Majeſty arrived there in perfect Health.

Hague, Sept. 4. M. Chiquet notified, on Wedneſday laſt, to the Preſident of the Week, the Birth of the Princeſs, of whom the Dauphineſs of France was delivered on the 26th of Auguſt, N. S. The States of Holland are ſtill aſſembled. The Treaty of Subſidy with the Elector of Bavaria, lately concluded at Hanover, has been ratified here by the States of Holland, as well as by the States General; and the Ratification has ſince been ſent back to M. Hop at Hanover.

Hague, Sept. 8. The States of Holland ſeparated on Saturday laſt, till they are convoked again. We hear from Utrecht, that the Hereditary Prince of Anſpach has left that Town in order to return to the Margrave his Father's Court. He goes to Loo firſt, to take Leave of their Royal and Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, who continue to enjoy a good State of Health at that Place.
